Hello,

I sent you comments on Monday, the email is attached here - or at least I attempted to. Outlook was acting very odd for me on Monday, and a pile of emails collected in my outbox for several hours without my knowledge. They were apparently "sent" when I restarted Outlook at some point Monday afternoon.

Thanks,
Jason

Just checking in if you guys will be able to provide comments by cob Thursday? I am just wanting to get back to the editor while it is still fresh on his mind.

Thanks,
